CURRENT PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITY

Antonio Hierro serves as an arbitrator focusing on international commercial and investment-treaty arbitrations conducted in English, Spanish and French, in ad hoc arbitrations, including arbitrations administered by the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA), and institutional arbitrations administered by the International Court of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) and other courts, mainly in Europe, Latin America and the United States.

Antonio's experience as an international arbitrator includes notably cases involving Construction & Engineering, Energy & Natural Resources, Consortium & Joint Ventures, Government, National Defence and Telecommunications.

In addition to being an arbitrator, and having been responsible for the establishment of some of Spain's principal courts of arbitration (Corte Civil y Mercantil de Arbitraje (CIMA); Corte Española de Arbitraje (CEA); Corte de Arbitraje de la Cámara de Comercio e Industria de Madrid (CAM)), Antonio is listed as an arbitrator at the principal arbitration institutions, including:

- International Court of Arbitration at the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC)
- London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA)
- China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC)
- Asian International Arbitration Centre (AIAC)
- Centro Iberoamericano de Arbitraje (CIAR)
- Centro de Mediación y Arbitraje Comercial de la Cámara Argentina de Comercio y Servicios (CEMARC)
- Conselho Arbitral do Estado de São Paulo (CAESP)
- Conciliation and Arbitration Center of the Uruguay Chamber of Commerce and Services (CCA)

Antonio is currently included on the ICSID Panel of Arbitrators, having successfully passed a public merit-based selection process organised by the Government of the Kingdom of Spain.

Antonio is Member of the ICC Court Alumni Group.

He also serves on the:

- ICC Institute of World Business Law
- ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR
- ICC Latin American Arbitration Group
- The London Court of International Arbitration (the Company)

- The Madrid International Arbitration Center (MIAC) Commission for the Preliminary Examination of Awards

He is a founder, past President, and now Honorary President of the Spanish Arbitration Club, a private association created in 2005 that promotes arbitration through events held with public institutions, universities, large companies, lawyers and judges throughout western Europe, Latin America and the US. The club has more than a thousand members spanning 43 nationalities and has international chapters in 30 countries.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Throughout his career, Antonio has focused on complex litigation. He began his career as a State Attorney for the Spanish government, working for the Ministries of the Treasury and Justice, and later acting as Agent for the Kingdom of Spain before the Court of Justice of the European Union. He was a Legal Advisor to the Spanish government during the negotiation of the Maastricht Treaty (Treaty on European Union).

He later joined Cuatrecasas, where he founded the arbitration and litigation practice and led it for more than 16 years. By the time Antonio left Cuatrecasas, the firm's arbitration and litigation practice had grown from a handful of lawyers to more than 260 lawyers whose expertise covered 12 substantive areas, including International Commercial Arbitration and Investment Treaty Arbitration. From 2004 to 2008, he served as the general director of the firm.

Now, Antonio has established his own specialist arbitration firm, Hierro Estudio Legal, S.L.P. Antonio acts exclusively as an arbitrator.
